Privacy Policy for LearnFlix

Last updated: September 13, 2024

LearnFlix ("we", "our", "us") is committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and disclose information when you use our browser extension.

1. Information We Collect

We do not collect, store, or share any personal data from our users. LearnFlix operates locally in your browser and does not transmit any data to external servers.

2. Permissions

LearnFlix requires certain permissions to function:

- Access to tabs and URLs: LearnFlix needs access to the URLs of the websites you visit to detect when you're watching content on supported streaming services, such as Netflix, so that it can provide language learning features like translation.
- Overlay of subtitles: LearnFlix interacts with the subtitle data on streaming platforms to offer translations and learning tools.

We use these permissions strictly to enhance the learning experience and do not use them for any other purpose.

3. No Tracking or Analytics

LearnFlix does not use any third-party tracking, analytics tools, or cookies. We do not collect or track browsing behavior, IP addresses, or other personal information.

4. Third-Party Services

LearnFlix may interact with third-party websites like Netflix, Amazon Prime, or other streaming platforms. However, we do not have control over these third-party services, and their respective privacy policies apply when you use their platforms.

5. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted here, and the "Last updated" date will reflect the most recent update.

6. Contact Us

If you have any questions or concerns about this Privacy Policy or the practices of LearnFlix, you can contact us at: gabrielgs1408@gmail.com.
